The college green awareness inside and outside the campus. It aims to assess the level of water conservation in the locality. The college community seeks to keep the campus plastic free. It takes special care to avoid plastics in celebrations. 'Plastic Free Campaign,' the booklet published by the Centre for Gandhian Studies was distributed to all the students and staff of the college. Environment sensitization posters were put up in campus on the occasion of World Environment Day and Gandhi Jayanti. Cleanliness throughout the campus is maintained for which employees are exclusively recruited. Maximum efforts are being put to avoid all types of pollution. NSS takes up Environmental awareness programmes and several competitions like Painting, Essay Writing and Quiz based on green themes were held. NSS in collaboration with VBU organised the Environment Day Celebrations that promoted the green message through posters and theatrical performances. Other departments also joined the celebrations by organising Intercollegiate Quiz, Power point and Poster Competitions.
